Students may receive departmental permission to substitute a different non-EDUC course, not on the above list, if they provide compelling evidence for its relevance to the minor.

NOTE: The following courses have field observations and students are required to apply for and pay for state mandated security clearances (EDUC-320, EDUC-350W, EDUC-375 and HEP-464). In addition, students will need their own transportation to local schools to complete the observation hours.

The Educational Studies major is interdisciplinary in nature and therefore meets the Linked Inquiry requirement of the Ursinus College Core.

Minor Instructions: 1) A minor may be declared at any time after a student has declared a major. 2) A Verification of Completion of Minor form must be submitted for the minor to remain on a student's transcript upon graduation. 3) The Verification of Completion of Minor form should be submitted during the semester that the student is completing the last course for the minor. The deadline is typically around the last day of April.
